Applies To	All Employees — Office & WFH
Attendance Tool	Attendance System (Mobile / Desktop)
Issued By	Human Resources Department

STRICT COMPLIANCE POLICY

Attendance violations attract immediate salary deductions. Fraud or falsification results in DISCIPLINARY DISMISSAL — no warnings issued.

1. Purpose & Scope

This policy governs attendance recording via the attendance system, break timings, photo verification, and professional dress standards for all employees. Compliance is mandatory. Attendance violations result in immediate salary deductions. Any act of fraud, falsification, or gross misconduct will result in a DISCIPLINARY DISMISSAL notice. A Disciplinary Dismissal notice, once issued, leads directly to termination of employment with immediate effect — no warnings, no notice period, and no appeal.

2. Working Hours & Shift Timings

Parameter	Time	Rule
Shift Start (Clock-In)	09:30 AM	On time. Grace period: 5 minutes only.
Grace Period Deadline	09:35 AM	Last acceptable clock-in without penalty.
Shift End (Clock-Out)	07:00 PM	Must clock out at or after 07:00 PM.
Morning Tea Break	Flexible	Maximum 15 minutes. Tracked via the attendance system.
Lunch Break	Flexible	Maximum 1 hour. Tracked via the attendance system.

3. Salary Deduction Rules

The following attendance scenarios will attract an automatic half-day salary deduction, processed without prior notice by the HR department:

3.1 Late Clock-In

VIOLATION / SCENARIO	SALARY DEDUCTION
Clock-in after 09:35 AM (grace period exceeded)	HALF DAY SALARY DEDUCTION

Grace period of 5 minutes (09:30 AM – 09:35 AM) is a one-time daily allowance. Any clock-in from 09:35:01 AM onwards is treated as a late login and attracts a half-day deduction with no exceptions.

3.2 Early Clock-Out

VIOLATION / SCENARIO	SALARY DEDUCTION
Clock-out before 07:00 PM for any reason	HALF DAY SALARY DEDUCTION

Employees must complete their full shift until 07:00 PM. Leaving early — regardless of reason — will result in a half-day salary deduction unless prior written approval from HR is obtained.

3.3 Forgotten Clock-Out

VIOLATION / SCENARIO	SALARY DEDUCTION
Failure to clock out at end of shift via the attendance system	HALF DAY SALARY DEDUCTION

It is the employee's sole responsibility to clock out on the attendance system at the end of every shift. Forgetting to clock out will not be excused and will be treated as an incomplete record, attracting a half-day deduction.

3.4 Morning Tea Break Overrun

VIOLATION / SCENARIO	SALARY DEDUCTION
Morning tea break exceeding 15 minutes	HALF DAY SALARY DEDUCTION

Morning tea break is strictly capped at 15 minutes. Any time taken beyond 15 minutes will result in a half-day salary deduction for that day.

3.5 Lunch Break Overrun

VIOLATION / SCENARIO	SALARY DEDUCTION
Lunch break exceeding 1 hour (60 minutes)	HALF DAY SALARY DEDUCTION

Lunch break is strictly capped at 1 hour. Any time taken beyond 60 minutes will result in a half-day salary deduction for that day.

3.6 Evening Tea Break Overrun

VIOLATION / SCENARIO	SALARY DEDUCTION
Evening tea break exceeding 15 minutes	HALF DAY SALARY DEDUCTION

Evening tea break is strictly capped at 15 minutes. Any time taken beyond 15 minutes will result in a half-day salary deduction for that day.

3.7 Unapproved Absence

VIOLATION / SCENARIO	SALARY DEDUCTION
Absent without HR-approved leave or prior information	2 TO 3 DAYS SALARY DEDUCTION

If an employee is absent on any working day without an approved leave request or prior information communicated to HR, a deduction equivalent to 2 to 3 working days' salary will be applied for that single day of absence. Leave must be approved by HR in advance.

4. Salary Deduction Summary

Quick reference for all deduction rules:

#	Scenario	Deduction Applied

5. Mandatory Photo Verification

Face capture is enabled on the attendance system for ALL entries — Clock-In, Clock-Out, Break Start, and Break Close. This rule applies equally to Office and WFH employees. Every photo must meet ALL of the following requirements without exception:

Every attendance entry photo must clearly show TWO things at the same time:

Requirement	Office Employees	WFH Employees
1. Clear Face	Face fully visible, well-lit, unobstructed. No sunglasses or masks (unless medically required). Employee must be looking directly at camera.	Same requirement applies. Face must be clearly visible in every entry. Dim lighting or blurred face will be rejected.
2. Laptop Screen ON & Visible in Background	Company-issued laptop must be open, screen switched ON, and clearly visible in the background of every attendance entry photo — including all break entries	Company-issued laptop must be open, screen switched ON, and clearly visible in the background of every attendance entry photo — including all break entries.

Both requirements — clear face AND laptop screen ON — must appear together in a single photo for every entry. A photo with only one of these is non-compliant.

Attendance System Entry	Clear Face Required	Laptop Screen ON Required	Applies To
Clock-In	✓ YES	✓ YES	Office & WFH
Clock-Out	✓ YES	✓ YES	Office & WFH
Break Start	✓ YES	✓ YES	Office & WFH
Break Close	✓ YES	✓ YES	Office & WFH

#	Requirement	Detail
3	Professional Attire	Must be in proper dress code (Section 6) in all photos — office and WFH alike.
4	Consistent Background	Same tidy, professional workspace. Frequent background changes will trigger HR review.
5	Live Capture Only	Photo must be taken in real time. No pre-taken, uploaded, or edited images.
6	Adequate Lighting	Dark, blurred, or unclear photos are rejected and treated as non-compliant.

VIOLATION / SCENARIO	SALARY DEDUCTION
Face not clearly visible in any attendance entry photo (Office or WFH)	HALF DAY SALARY DEDUCTION
Laptop screen OFF or not visible in Clock-In photo (Office or WFH)	HALF DAY SALARY DEDUCTION
Laptop screen OFF or not visible in Clock-Out photo (Office or WFH)	HALF DAY SALARY DEDUCTION
Laptop screen OFF or not visible in Break Start photo (Office or WFH)	HALF DAY SALARY DEDUCTION
Laptop screen OFF or not visible in Break Close photo (Office or WFH)	HALF DAY SALARY DEDUCTION
Laptop entirely absent from background in any attendance entry photo	HALF DAY SALARY DEDUCTION
Only face visible with no laptop — or only laptop visible with face hidden	HALF DAY SALARY DEDUCTION

WFH employees are held to the exact same photo standards as office employees. Working from home does not exempt any employee from showing a clear face and a switched-ON laptop screen in every single attendance entry.

A laptop that is closed, switched off, partially hidden, or out of frame is treated the same as a missing laptop. No exceptions for any reason.

7. Repeated Violations — Disciplinary Dismissal

CONTINUOUS VIOLATIONS = DISCIPLINARY DISMISSAL

No excuse, no appeal, no second chance. Repeated non-compliance leads to Disciplinary Dismissal. Once a Disciplinary Dismissal notice is applied, employment ends immediately.

Any employee who repeatedly violates attendance, photo, or dress code requirements — regardless of the reason given — will receive a Disciplinary Dismissal notice, leading to immediate end of employment. No excuse will be entertained once a pattern of non-compliance is established. A Disciplinary Dismissal notice, once issued, is final.

Important Notice to All Employees

There are NO verbal warnings, NO written warnings, and NO grace for repeated violations. Once a pattern is identified:

- HR will flag the employee record immediately.
- No personal excuse, health reason, or technical explanation will be accepted as justification for continuous non-compliance.
- A Disciplinary Dismissal notice will be issued and employment will cease with immediate effect — no notice period will be served.
- Once a Disciplinary Dismissal notice is issued under this clause, the decision is final and non-appealable.

8. Monitoring & Enforcement

- HR reviews attendance records and break durations daily.
- Salary deductions are processed at the end of each month based on attendance system data.
- No appeals will be entertained for violations clearly recorded in the attendance system.
- Monthly attendance reports are shared with department heads.

9. Employee Acknowledgement

All employees must sign the Employee Policy Acknowledgement Form (HR-ACK-002) upon joining, confirming they have read, understood, and agreed to this policy. Ignorance of this policy will not be accepted as a defence against any deduction or disciplinary action.
